

MIAMI TODAY

WEEK OF THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2009

WWW.MIAMITODAYNEWS.COM

Real Estate Today

JOINING FORCES: Max Property Management is teaming up with realty services firm Steelbridge Group to provide property management and financial services to strengthen Steelbridge's

Michael Manno

local presence. Under Steelbridge Real Estate Services, co-managing principals Michael Manno and Anthony Manno are to offer management and financial services to Steelbridge clients. The duo has managed 750,000 square feet in Florida over the past five years, with clients including Helm Bank

Anthony Manno

USA and Commonfund Realty. "Joining the Steelbridge Group provides our clients the ability to broaden their resources while still benefiting from our Florida-focused property management and financial services," Michael Manno said. Jay Caplin, managing principal of Steelbridge Capital, says it's clear local firms have the needed expertise to help reach an asset's long-term potential. Steelbridge Capital is a realty investment firm focused on acquiring commercial realty at significant discounts in Florida's office, retail and mixed-use markets.